THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY INSTITUTION

THE FORECAST

Oklahoma will once again feature a good offense, a fine defense and a coaching staff that's inclined to worry a lot.

Barry Switzer, the head of Project Concern, remembers when he was an assistant coach here in 1969 and OU finished 6-4 with good material. He remembers that Oklahoma dressed out plenty of studs in '70 only to finish 7-4-1.

Last year when the Sooners won their fourth national championship with a perfect 11-0 record, they had to stage fourth-quarter rallies to beat Texas, 16-13, Nebraska, 28-14, and Oklahoma State, 44-13.

Living ain't exactly easy these days even though OU owns the nation's longest winning streak of 20 games and has not lost in 29 contests.

OU's '75 offense looks explosive on paper. Steve Davis, the guy who makes it go, has never quarterbacked a losing game. He's back with five of his buddies who helped the Sooners lead the nation last year in rushing (438.8 yards), total offense (507.7) and in scoring (43.0 points).

When Oklahoma gets the ball, all eyes focus on No. 24, alias Joe Washington, maybe the greatest halfback to play here. He darts, bobs and weaves, turning base hits into home runs.

Fullback Jim Littrell, split end Tinker Owens, guard Terry Webb and tackle Mike Vaughan, so big and fast he's nicknamed "USS Vaughan" are the other four starters returning. Tony DiRienzo, the Brazilian place-kicker who won the Texas game with a 35-yard field goal and kicked five more of those plus all 39 extra points he tried, owns one more year of eligibility.

That's the good news.

The bad is the fact five good studs from that '74 offense won't be back. The left side of the line that included all-America center Kyle Davis, all-America guard John Roush, tackle Jerry Arnold and tight end Wayne Hoffman, was wiped out by graduation.

At the end of spring practice, Switzer and his staff thought they'd filled every vacancy but Hoffman's. Tight end will be the sore spot when practice opens this fall.

The departure of both linebackers Rod Shoate, three-time all-American Gary Gibbs, plus Randy Hughes, another all-American who played strong safety, will cripple the Sooners' defense the most. But the return of the Selmons — Leroy at tackle and Dewey at middle guard — right end Jimbo Elrod, right tackle Anthony Bryant, right cornerback Sidney Brown and safety Zac Henderson, should keep OU's coaches fairly calm when the other guys have the ball.

To summarize, Oklahoma lost 35 lettermen and 10 starters from '74. The Sooners return 38 lettermen, (21 on defense, 17 on offense) and 13 starters, including DiRienzo.

THE OFFENSE

The "Help Wanted" sign is still up. Oklahoma needs a tight end. At the end of spring practice Coach Barry Switzer and his staff felt comfortable about every position but this one. And it's a key spot in the Sooners' Wishbone attack.

The guy who plays there must be big, strong, able to block and catch passes. Wayne Hoffman spoiled you the way he performed for two seasons. His graduation will give Switzer and Co. plenty to worry about during the summer.

Craig Lund, junior from Richardson, Tex., worked at tight end during the spring and might pan out when fall practice begins.

Keith Thomas, switched from the defensive secondary for a trial there, couldn't practice at full steam last spring because his operated knee wouldn't allow it. Then he hurt the other knee and underwent surgery so nobody got a good look at him.

Reggie Mathis, who'll transfer to Oklahoma from Navarro, Tex. Junior College this fall, will be watched closely. He's the tight end type — big, strong and able to catch passes.

"If we can't find somebody to play there we might alter our offense a little and play both Owens and Brooks (Billy, OU's other gifted split receiver) in the lineup at the same time," Switzer says. "We'd split both of 'em wide on opposite sides of the line and do away with tight end as we know it."

The six returning starters from that '74 offense operate at skilled positions, giving the coaching staff a good nucleus to build around this fall.

Here's the evaluation of Oklahoma's '75 offense by areas:

Offensive Line

Good if a tight end can be located. Although Kyle Davis (center), John Roush (left guard) and Jerry Arnold (left tackle) used their eligibility in '74, OU's coaches feel that they have found adequate replacements. Chez Evans, big, quick junior, and Jamie Melendez, redshirt sophomore, can both play where Arnold and Roush held forth. Which one plays where will be determined when fall practice begins.

Melendez lettered as a freshman. Evans owns plenty of experience, too.

Dennis Buchanan, a redsirt senior, will play center. He's experienced and owns good ability. Webb and Vaughan, of course, will reside at right guard and tackle.

"We have as much athletic ability as we've ever had in the offensive line," says Coach Gene Hochevar, who's in charge of that department. "The big question is, can they work as a unit as well as they did when Arnold, Roush and Davis played."

Receivers

With the return of Owens and Brooks, two of the nation's best, the Sooners should be good in this area. Indications are that OU might throw more in '75 which would draw these two deeper into the picture. Owens caught 18 passes last year for 413 yards and 5 touchdowns while Brooks, remindful of Paul Warfield with his long, smooth stride and receiving ability, snared 7 for 176 yards and 3 touchdowns. Their receiving potential keeps the enemy on Red Alert, opening up the running game even more.

The Backfield

The return of Davis, Washington and Littrell means that OU will move the football in '75. Elvis Peacock (428 yards in 55 carries as a freshman) is the leading contender for Grant Burget's old position at right halfback. Peacock, sophomore from Miami, Fla. is a rumbler, who storms around end with terrific speed, rips through the line with good power and could become a great, great back before he finishes his career at Oklahoma. He won't be the only thing happening at right half. Horace Ivory, another big, strong halfback with speed and probably more moves than Peacock, will also play there. Ivory transferred from Navarro, Tex. Junior College at mid-term in '74 but underwent surgery for a calcium deposit in the upper leg and watched from the sidelines last year.

Davis should be ably backed at quarterback by Kerry Jackson, Dean Blevins, a promising sophomore, and Joe McReynolds who redshirted last season.

Jimmy Culbreath, a walk-on from Haverford, Pa. who sparkled in spring practice, and Calvin Harris, letterman in '74, will battle for the No. 2 fullback spot behind Littrell.

Maybe it's too early to judge but Billy Sims, the high school wizard from Hooks, Tex., could figure into the Sooners' backfield right away. "Sometimes a guy can come out of high school and play," says Barry Switzer. "Joe Washington did."

THE DEFENSE

"With Leroy and Dewey Selmon coming back I have to think we'll be good on defense," says Larry Lacewell, Oklahoma's man in charge of stoppage.

Whether the Sooners live up to past performances remains to be seen but, good gosh, look what they accomplished the past three years when the other guys had the ball.

For openers, Oklahoma has led the Big Eight conference in defense against scoring annually since '71.

No opponent has scored more than two touchdowns a game against Lacewell's forces in the past 34 contests, dating back to that 40-22 victory over Auburn in the '71 Sugar Bowl. If the enemy rang up more than 14, they scored via the field goal or off of an offensive mistake — the intercepted pass or the intercepted lateral, which was the case in the '73 game with Miami of Florida.

Rod Shoate, three-time all-America linebacker who wore an "S" on his chest and No. 43 on his back, ain't around anymore. He's the type of athlete who may never be replaced. "They don't make 'em like that often," brags Lacewell. Randy Hughes, the all-America strong safety, also used up his eligibility. So did Tony Peters, swift and talented left cornerback, Gary Gibbs, the other linebacker who played well and Ronny Waters, the quick and talented left end.

The key to the whole situation in '75, says Lacewell, is how well the two new linebackers perform. They'll be new whoever they are. Right now Bill Dalke from Hobart and Obie Moore of Austin, Tex. — two redshirts — are the leading candidates.

But Russ Williamson, redshirt from Dallas, Tex., Jamie Thomas of Ada, a converted fullback, and Marty Brecht, Edmond junior, plan to issue a stern challenge to the above. "It's wide open," says Lacewell.

Here's the outlook by areas:

Interior Line

Good if Anthony Bryant, the No. 1 right tackle, recovers from knee surgery. The Selmons offer one heck of a foundation to work from. Dewey probably will play middle guard again. Leroy, of course, will be stationed at left tackle. If Bryant can't go, Richard Murray, 6-3, 250-pound sophomore from Greenville, Tex. is ready to step in. He'll play a bunch anyhow. Glen Comeaux and George Walrond are on standby at middle guard.

Lacewell believes that if Bryant rallies from surgery, and he should since he underwent cartilage repair — the least serious when you talk about knee operations — that the interior line might be better than it was last year.

The Ends

Good. Jimbo Elrod returns at right end. He's got it all — speed, good tackling ability and quickness. Duane Baccus underwent knee surgery last winter and missed spring practice so he will have to battle Mike Phillips for starting duty at left end. There's depth at these positions. Victor Brown and Terry Sherman, a talented sophomore from New Orleans who was moved from linebacker, can play well.

The Secondary

Coach Bobby Proctor, the boss back there, says he never saw so much hustle and hard tackling in spring practice since he's been at Oklahoma. Randy Hughes, the all-America strong safety, will be missed but Proctor has good athletes to work with. Sidney Brown (left cornerback), Eric Van Camp (right corner) and Zac Henderson (free safety) are returning starters. At the end of spring drills, Mike Birks was No. 1 at strong safety. Depth prevails in this area. Frank Rohr, a good one, was No. 2 at left corner. Myron Shoate, Rod's brother, was playing behind Birks and Jerry Reese, a long, tall specimen with speed and athletic ability, was stationed behind Henderson. Terry Peters was listed No. 2 behind Van Camp. Scott Hill, who lettered at safety last year, missed spring work with an injury but he'll be back to contend for playing time.

The way Proctor's talking, Oklahoma should field a good, fast secondary in '75 with good depth.

Linebackers

Both Moore and Dalke will play well against the rush — plays that come right at 'em. They'll be good on sweeps and in pass coverage but not as effective.

Williamson's height and mobility impress the coaches and Thomas has lettered at linebacker already so he's experienced and probably knows what to do better than the rest. So might Marty Brecht, who lettered last season. With the loss of Shoate and Gary Gibbs, the other starter in '74, the Sooners can't be as good in this area. And no matter who winds up playing, inexperience will prevail.

Elvis Peacock (4) and Joe Washington (24) congratulate each other after a Sooner touchdown. They'll line up in the same backfield again in '75.

Coach Barry Switzer

Barry Switzer attacks life like it was the other team and he was trying for first down. Oklahoma's 37-year-old head coach owns a blue-chip personality, he works around the clock, he worries constantly, likes to joke often and he's good with people. Probably the latter trait provides the main ingredient for his success.

Switzer has not lost as head coach. That borders on the unbelievable, considering the first-class opposition Oklahoma faces week after week. Barry's record here reads 21-0-1.

He knows the bubble will burst one of these Saturdays "but I just hope when we do lose it'll be to a class opponent and they won't beat us because of our mistakes. They'll walk out there and beat us like it ought to be done."

Although Switzer displays a happy, carefree attitude much of the time, he can be stern when necessary. Those who play for him and coach under him are agreed on that. He's no nonsense.

Switzer's '74 Sooners handed this school its fourth national championship and its third straight Big Eight conference title. More phenomenal, eight members of Barry's team made all-America last year.

OU's head man was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp foundation, the Washington Pigskin Club, Football News, the Sporting News and Playboy Magazine in '74 as Oklahoma zipped to that perfect 11-0 record.

He was chosen Big Eight Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and United Press International in both '73 and '74.

His team led the nation in three categories last fall, in total offense (507.7 yards), rushing (438.8 yards) and in scoring (43.0 points). That was old hat to Barry, who used to boss the Sooner offense when Chuck

Fairbanks was head coach and OU led the nation at moving the football almost every year. Switzer became head coach when Fairbanks left to become General Manager and Head Coach of the New England Patriots after the 1972 season.

Barry was tailor-made for the head job at OU. He had coached every phase of the game both offensively and defensively as an assistant at Arkansas for six years and at Oklahoma for seven more.

He played linebacker and center at Arkansas in 1957-8-9. He captained the Razorbacks his senior year when they tied for the Southwest Conference championship and won the Gator Bowl. He coached six years under Frank Broyles at Arkansas before coming to Oklahoma as offensive line coach in 1966.

"I hope I get to coach in this place for a long time," he says. "And when it's over and everything is added up, I want the left hand column (the victory column) to be in better shape than the right side."

Coach Switzer Says:

"We should have a good football team this year but we won't be as good as we were last season.

"Rod Shoate is gone at linebacker and Randy Hughes, our all-American strong safety, graduated, too. You just don't go out and replace two super players like that. We may never replace them. We also lost Tony Peters at cornerback, Gary Gibbs, our other linebacker and Ron Waters at defensive end, so we won't be as good on defense as we were.

"With the return of quarterback Steve Davis and halfback Joe Washington, who I think is the best back in America, our offense ought to be good. But a couple of key injuries here and there would make us very ordinary all of a sudden.

"What hurts us is the fact our entire left side of the line graduated. The position that probably concerns me the most is tight end. We have to find somebody to replace Wayne Hoffman there or we won't move the ball like we have the last two years. We looked at some people at that position during spring practice and we plan to look some more when fall drills begin.

"Defensively, I'm most concerned about the two linebacker positions. Although Obie Moore and Bill Dalke were the two leading candidates to replace Shoate and Gibbs at the end of the spring, Russ Williamson and Jamie Thomas looked like they will contend. No matter who plays there for us, they'll have little or no experience.

"Every team on our schedule scares me. We had to come from behind to beat Texas, Nebraska and Oklahoma State last year and we had some close games with other folks. For a team to go undefeated like we did in '74, you have to get a lot of breaks — no injuries, etc. — and you have to be just plain lucky once in awhile. A lot of little things have to fall into place for a team to stay undefeated. Anybody can beat you on Saturday."

(Numerically)

5 QB Steve Davis

22, 5-11, 185, sr., Sallisaw

He has a shot at becoming only the second quarterback in OU history never to have played in a losing game. Davis realizes that will take some doing but his record right now reads 21-0-1, the 7-7 tie with Southern Cal in 1973 standing in the way of perfection.

Jimmy Harris, who quarterbacked Bud Wilkinson's teams part of 1954 and all of the '55 and '56 seasons, never tasted defeat. He guided the Sooners to the National Championship in '56. Davis did that last year.

Steve's teammates jokingly say that OU's chances are good to remain undefeated in '75 since the Lord is on his side. Davis is a licensed Baptist preacher who flies his own airplane around the country delivering sermons. He averages five of those a week when football season is over, probably covering more miles than OU's coaches do recruiting and making their own speeches.

Here was a one-week, Steve Davis itinerary last winter:

Sunday — In Wynnewood, Okla.

Monday-Tuesday — In Chickasha, Okla.

Thursday — In Lincoln, Neb.
Friday — In New Orleans, La.
Saturday — In Coalgate, Okla.

And so on.

"I just see the good that results in it for all of the young people," Davis said in a story written by Ray Soldan of the Daily Oklahoman. "I speak at churches, civic group functions, athletic banquets and OU alumni groups. President Sharp (OU's president) said the school should hire me. If I'm a star then some of the people who dream about it don't know the whole thing. I send out about 100 letters a week answering my mail. At the post office they say: 'Oh, no, not you again!'

"I don't have to set an alarm clock. My phone rings every morning before 8 o'clock."

Davis is what you're looking for physically in a Wishbone quarterback. He's big, strong, fast (4.5 in the 40) and intelligent. He can get splattered by an enemy tackle and live to talk about it.

After Oklahoma rushed 482 yards and beat Nebraska, 28-14, with Davis gaining 112 of those, Bob Devaney, former coach and athletic director at NU said: "You can talk all you want about Joe Washington and those other backs but the guy who makes it all go is that quarterback. He's really something."

Steve thrives on the running game. He's totaled 1,546 yards rushing on 344 carries in two seasons, an average of 4.4. He can break the long run, too. Davis has scored 27 touchdowns, 18 of those coming his sophomore season.

Although the Wishbone is not built around the forward pass, Steve threw 11 TD strikes in '74, some of them long bombs that fooled enemy defenses crowding the line to stop OU's rushing attack. He fired 9 touchdown bombs his sophomore season. He completed 26 of 63 passes for 601 yards last year and 38 of 91 for 934 as a sophomore.

He was Oklahoma's leading scorer in 1973 with 18 touchdowns. He scored 9 TDs last fall.

Here's a breakdown of his key performances during 1974:

TEXAS — Rushed 71 yards, scored OU's first touchdown on a 22-yard run.

COLORADO — Rushed 106 yards on 7 carries (15.1 average), threw a 38-yard pass to Tinker Owens, giving OU first down and goal at the Buffalo 2-yard line to set up the Sooners' first TD; threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Wayne Hoffman for Oklahoma's fourth TD; scored a TD himself and broke two 33-yard runs to set up Sooner touchdowns.

KANSAS STATE — Scored the first OU touchdown on a 3-yard run; passed 31 yards to Tinker Owens and 20 to Wayne Hoffman for two more TDs.

IOWA STATE — Completed 5 of 8 passes for 131 yards and two touchdowns after a muddy field took away Oklahoma's rushing game. Ran 17 yards off tackle to give OU first down at the Cyclone 11, setting up the Sooners' second TD.

MISSOURI — Completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to Hoffman; set up Oklahoma's second touchdown with runs of 12 and 13 yards, the latter giving OU first and goal at the Mizzou 3.

KANSAS — Rushed 129 yards on 29 carries; threw a 72-yard touchdown pass to Billy Brooks; totaled 114 yards passing and ran for a touchdown himself.

NEBRASKA — Rushed for two touchdowns, gained 112 yards on 27 carries; set up the tying touchdown in the third quarter with a 16-yard run to Nebraska's 22 and the go-ahead touchdown with a 9-yard run, giving Oklahoma first and goal at the Huskers' 1-yard line.

11 SE Tinker Owens

20, 5-11, 170, sr., Miami, Okla.

About the time Oklahoma's opponents become a little too engrossed in the Sooners' running game, No. 11 will run his usual good route, break open behind the secondary and grasp Steve Davis' long pass for a big gainer and sometimes the touchdown.

Maybe Tinker Owens, more than anybody else, makes OU's running game the potent weapon it is.

"He runs every route like he's expecting us to throw to him," explains Coach Don Duncan of the receivers. "That's important because the defense can't pay as much attention to our running game."

What Owens does best, of course, is catch the ball. He dropped one in the Kansas State game last year the coaches thought he shouldn't have. Everything else thrown his way was gulped up by his sure hands, including 5 touchdown passes. He totaled 18 completions for 413 yards, one fine statistic when you consider that 19 were thrown close enough for him to catch.

"He might drop one a year," says Galen Hall, OU's offensive coach, "and those will be in practice. But I'm not sure he's dropped one every year."

Concentration is the word Hall uses to explain Tinker's success. Concentration and good athletic ability.

Tinker tries to explain his no-drop-'em formula: "I just watch the ball. You can't be concerned with getting hit after you catch it. Heck, I know I'm gonna get hit, so why not catch it first."

Owens, selected on Newspaper Enterprise Association all-American team last year and on United Press International's all-Big Eight squad, caught some dandies in '74. He clutched a 38-yarder from Davis with two Colorado defenders swarming to set up OU's first touchdown.

His 33-yard, off-balance reception for the Sooners' fourth touchdown against Iowa State put that game out of reach. He caught a 43-yard bomb from Kerry Jackson, giving OU first-and-goal at the Baylor 2. He finished with four receptions for 91 yards that day.

His other highlights include a 26-yard catch vs. Utah State, a 32-yarder vs. Wake Forest; a 31-yarder for a TD against Kansas State and a 14 yarder from Davis for a TD against Kansas.

As a sophomore, Owens caught a 52-yarder from Davis to beat Miami of Florida in the fourth quarter. He caught passes of 40 and 63 yards to score against Texas in OU's 51-13 victory.

His name became prominent toward the end of his freshman season. John Carroll, the No. 1 split end, reinjured a knee in the game with Nebraska for the Big Eight championship. Owens, who didn't weigh but 165 pounds then, entered the lineup and caught 38 and 13-yard passes from quarterback Dave Robertson to set up Oklahoma's first touchdown early in the second half. Then he caught a 22-yarder giving OU first down at the Cornhuskers' 10, putting the Sooners in position to tie the game at 14-all. Oklahoma went on to upset Nebraska, 17-14.

He caught a 27-yard pass from Robertson, breaking open a tight game and giving OU a 7-0 lead over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl that same season. Owens finished with five receptions for 132 yards and was named the game's outstanding player.

He is the brother of Steve Owens, running back for the Detroit Lions.

24 LHB Joe Washington

21, 5-10, 184, sr., Port Arthur, Tex.

(Lincoln)

This zig-zagging all-American ranks as the most invisible runner to ever play at Oklahoma.

"He's never there when you want him," cracked a teammate who tried to tackle this elusive jitterbug during a scrimmage Washington's sophomore year.

Little Joe, who bobs and wiggles like a topwater lure, has rushed for 3,124 yards at Oklahoma. Third in last year's Heisman Trophy race, he averages 6.4 yards every time he takes the handoff.

Coach Barry Switzer says: "A lot of backs gain 100 yards a game but there aren't many who gain 6 yards every time they touch the ball. Joe does."

A professional scout watching OU's game film was also impressed with Washington's blocking ability. "He wipes 'em out. Not all of your good running backs will stick their necks out and block that hard."

Trailing only Steve Owens, who rushed 3,867 yards, OU's latest rage should become the school's all-time best from scrimmage long before his senior year is over.

But not in Joe Washington's mind. "Steve got his yardage in three years," says Joe. "I've already played that long. As far as I'm concerned, I'm more than a thousand yards away from him."

Little Joe rushed 630 as a freshman which he personally will not count toward the school mark, thereby leaving him 1,373 yards short of Owens' total.

In his own mind, anyway.

Washington is frightening on punt and kickoff returns. He whirled back 512 yards with them in '74. He gained 482 yards in returns as a sophomore.

His key punt runbacks in '74 included:

A 65-yarder for a touchdown against Baylor that was nullified by a clipping penalty;

A 65-yarder to score against

Wake Forest after a 64-yarder was nullified by clipping;

A 57-yard punt return for the TD that sealed Oklahoma's 44-13 victory over Oklahoma State.

Washington's pass catching ability surfaced in OU's 28-10 victory at Iowa State in the mud last year. He escaped the Cyclone secondary and caught the bomb from Steve Davis on a 30-yard touchdown play that put the game out of reach.

Barry Switzer isn't the only head coach impressed with Little Joe's ability:

Coach Bill Mallory of Colorado: "He's tremendous. He's got quick, tremendous feet and yet he always seems to be going north or south."

Coach Earle Bruce of Iowa State: "He is truly one of the great running backs ever. I've never seen a running back like him."

Coach Jim Stanley of Oklahoma State: "He's a Houdini. He's harder to hem up than a jackrabbit, harder than any football player I've ever seen. He made some plays that are unhuman."

Coach Grant Teaff of Baylor after losing to Oklahoma — "If Joe Washington hadn't been in there it would have been a different ball game. He's the one that killed us. He's unbelievble."

Texas defensive line coach Pat Patterson — who watched Oklahoma beat Baylor at Waco during Washington's sophomore season. "When he blocks, he'll sting you. There's none of that running in there sideways with him."

Darrell Royal of Texas — "He's just as good as you'll find. He might go through that keyhole over there. He jumps. He hurdles. He cuts back. He's just a dangerous runner, period."

Washington zoomed 1,321 yards from scrimmage in 1975, an average of 6.8 every time he took the handoff.

He wears hand-painted silver football shoes on Saturday. But he practices in worn-looking black high-top shoes, remindful of the 1940s and '50s. "They protect my ankles," he says.

Washington's brother, Ken, is the starting quarterback for North Texas State. They were named co-National Backs of the Week by the Associated Press after their respective teams won opening games in 1974.

Joe's father, Joe Washington, Sr., is the highly successful coach at Port Arthur Lincoln high school.

Here's Washington's 1974 feats, game-by-game.

Baylor—Rushed 156 yards on 17 carries (9.1 avg.) Scored on 9-yard run to seal 28-11 Oklahoma win. AP National Back of the Week.

Utah State—Rushed 61 yards on eight carries while playing less than half the game. Scored twice.

Wake Forest—Rushed 145 yards on nine carries (16.1 avg.). Scored on 65-yard run.

Texas—Rushed 124 yards on 26 carries.

Colorado—Rushed 211 yards on 19 tries (11.6 avg.). Scored four TDs on runs of 2, 6, 18 and 28 yards.

Kansas State—Rushed 133 yards on 17 tries, scoring one touchdown. Had punt returns of 17, 30 and 32 yards.

Iowa State—Rushed 14 times for 86 yards. Caught two passes for 71 yards, including pass for 30-yard touchdown.

Missouri—143 yards on 26 carries (5.5 avg.), scoring on 3-yard run.

Kansas—Carried 21 times for 63 yards. Returned six punts for 76 yards.

Nebraska—Rushed 142 yards on 21 carries (6.8 avg.). Scored on 4-yard run.

Oklahoma State—Rushed 50 yards on 16 tries, scoring two TDs. Scored on 57-yard punt return that sealed 44-13 victory for the Sooners.

54 DE Jimbo Elrod

21, 6-0, 210, sr., Tulsa (East Central)

This fast, reckless ex-wrestler makes more big plays — fumble recoveries, saving tackles in pressure situations, blocked punts — than any Oklahoma player has made the past few years.

The coaching staff almost switched Elrod to linebacker his junior season because of his great speed and tackling ability, but decided to leave him at right end.

He made United Press International's third-team all-America squad in '74 and was a unanimous choice on the Associated Press and UPI all-Big Eight teams.

Elrod wrestled for Oklahoma his freshman and sophomore seasons at 190 pounds and he was good. A shoulder injury that required surgery kept him off the mat last winter.

He was the third leading tackler in OU's line in '74 totaling 83. He made 15 stops for 84 yards in losses behind the line of scrimmage, and recovered three fumbles.

Elrod made probably the critical play in OU's 16-13 victory over Texas when he blindsided Texas' Earl Campbell forcing a fumble that killed the Longhorn drive and set up OU's game-winning field goal. He totaled 11 tackles that day, one for a 4-yard loss and he recovered a fumble of his own.

Iowa State drove to the Oklahoma 30-yard line in the third quarter and threatened to score but Elrod zipped through and tackled Tom Mason, their quarterback, for a 6-yard loss, killing the drive that could have made a close game of it. With the Cyclones in possession at the OU 40 in the fourth period, Elrod broke through to nail Mason for a 5-yard loss, forcing them to punt. OU's defensive whiz totaled 13 tackles that day, four for 16 yards in losses.

Elrod totaled 6 tackles against Missouri, 2 for 15 yards in losses.

He threw a key block that allowed cornerback Tony Peters to break free and run 59 yards to a touchdown with an intercepted pass against Kansas. Jimbo made 8 tackles against the Jayhawks, 2 for minus 11 yards.

In Oklahoma's 28-14 victory over Nebraska, Elrod made another big play when he rushed David Humm so fast, the latter threw an incompletion on a key third-down play at the Oklahoma 6-yard line, forcing the Huskers to try a field goal they missed. OU trailed, 7-14, at the time and another Husker TD might have spelled defeat for OU.

With Oklahoma trailing Oklahoma State, 13-10, in the third quarter, Elrod pounced on an OSU fumble at the Cowboys' 21-yard line, giving the Sooners excellent field position to move on in, score and take a 16-13 lead it never gave back.

In 1973, Elrod blocked an Oklahoma State punt that rolled back into the Cowboy endzone where Steve Dodd recovered for an Oklahoma touchdown, giving the Sooners a 27-6 lead that put the game out of reach.

66 OG Terry Webb

22, 6-0, 247, sr., Muskogee

Oklahoma's explosive guard is the most natural athlete in the offensive line. His speed is 4.8 in the 40, mighty fast for a lineman and he's quick as lightning.

Webb's ability to explode and run is particularly valuable on sweeps and counters. You'll see him blocking down field frequently.

"He has the fastest takeoff of any lineman I've ever coached," lauds Coach Gene Hochevar of the offensive line.

Probably his best game last year came in the Sooners' 28-14 victory over Nebraska when OU's running game gobbled up 482 yards. Webb's blocking was awesome as he graded 90 per cent on the game films, exceptionally high. He threw the key block on Steve Davis' 10-yard run for the first touchdown. Then he threw the main block on Joe Washington's 4-yard run for TD No. 2. "We haven't had many linemen block better than Terry did that day," said Hochevar.

In OU's 28-11 victory over Baylor, Webb removed a would-be tackler on Tinker Owens' end-around touchdown run and he threw important blocks on Davis' 1-yard touchdown sneak and on Grant Burget's 28-yard scoring burst.

He blew open the holes on Joe Washington's two touchdown runs against Wake Forest.

His block helped free Davis on a 22-yard touchdown run for the Sooners' first TD against Texas and he paved the way for Elvis Peacock's nine-yard TD sweep against Iowa State.

91 MG Dewey Selmon

21, 6-1, 257, sr., Eufaula

Just because his brother Leroy is probably the best defensive tackle in college football, don't forget this all-American who is liable to be the premiere middle guard in the country.

Dewey Selmon possesses exceptional strength, he runs the 40 in 4.9 seconds, is the fiercest competitor in Oklahoma's line and he gets a strong vote from Mrs. Jessie Selmon, his mother and the leading authority on her sons.

"I know you coaches are always talking about Leroy," she says, "but I think Dewey is just as good."

The subject of her conversation totaled 104 tackles last year, 8 of them for 37 yards in losses and can't step into his room without stumbling over those game balls Barry Switzer gives players who make the big plays each Saturday.

Dewey was chosen on The Football News all-America team in '74 and made everybody's all-Big Eight squad.

He started the '74 season playing left tackle but after OU's 28-11 victory over Baylor in the opening game, Dewey was moved to middle guard to add muscle at that position. It was familiar territory, however, since he had practiced there in the spring of '72, backing up Lucious Selmon, his other brother.

Dewey opened the season with a bang, totaling 12 tackles against Baylor, 2 for 12 yards in losses. After the game, Baylor's Gary Gregory, an offensive tackle, said: "Dewey Selmon should be in the NFL. Maybe they could stop him. Didn't seem like I had much success. He and Waters killed us everytime we tried to go outside."

Dewey played superior defense in Oklahoma's 16-13 victory over Texas. He made 22 tackles, 1 for a 3-yard loss. In OU's 49-14 victory over Colorado, Dewey was the leading tackler in the line with 11 stops, 2 for 12 yards in losses. He killed a Buffalo scoring drive at OU's 43-yard line by throwing quarterback Clyde Crutchmer for a 6-yard loss on third down, forcing a punt. He was chosen Big Eight Lineman of the Week.

"I'd like to be known as a nice guy," jokes Dewey. But he carries the reputation of being the meanest player in the Selmon family and that includes Lucious, his older brother who made all-American playing nose guard at OU from 1971-73. "They started calling me the meanest when I got a little carried away during a game and nearly knocked the helmet off a ball carrier with a right cross. Nobody was supposed to see it but me. But the official did and we got a 15-yard penalty. That's not my usual style of play. I'm really a nice guy."

The two Selmons may be the best defensive linemen in college football. "There's really no competition between us for honors," Dewey says. "We both go out with our own talents and try to improve on them. If one of us gets an honor we're both glad."

93 DT Leroy Selmon

20, 6-2, 256, sr., Eufaula

The projector whirred, flashing OU's game movies onto the screen and Barry Switzer was thoroughly enjoying the play of No. 93.

"Look at the Big Cat," he yelled, grinning. "Whoom! He jumps 'em, doesn't he?"

The Big Cat goes by the more familiar name of Leroy Selmon, all-American and one of the best athletes for his size in college football.

"He may go before the first round," cracked a pro scout visiting OU's practices last spring.

Leroy runs the 40 in 4.8 seconds, is immovable at the line of scrimmage and keeps in shape in the off-season by playing basketball, another sport in which he excelled at Eufaula High. He owns a fluid jump shot and can still leap up and dunk it.

"You take all the qualities you'd like a tackle to have and Leroy's got 'em," says Rex Norris, assistant coach in charge of the defensive line.

Leroy led all tacklers in the Sooners' rugged defensive front last fall, totaling 125. Eighteen of them were behind the line of scrimmage for 71 yards in losses.

He made 15 stops against Baylor, 2 for 10 yards in losses. Leroy also recovered a Texas fumble and totaled 14 tackles that day, one for a 7-yard loss.

He played his best game of the season against Missouri, throwing Tiger backs to the ground 14 times, twice for 9 yards in losses. More remarkable was the fact Mizzou ran away from his side of the line.

Leroy crashed Kansas' offensive front to make 13 tackles, 4 of them behind the line.

In the Nebraska game, he rushed quarterback David Humm hard all afternoon, forcing him to throw three interceptions. Leroy made 14 tackles, two of them for losses.

Selmon is valuable off the field, too. He volunteered to work at the Mid-Del Family Youth Center in Oklahoma City in his spare time. He works ten hours a week during the school year and longer during summer months counseling young people with problems — drugs, family and school.

"Some kids need help," he says. "All they need is someone to rap with them. If I can help just a few, I'll feel real good about it. Hey, I didn't grow up in a bed of roses. Just because I play football doesn't mean I didn't have any problems."

Eight Sooners All-American

Eight Oklahoma players on the 1974 National Championship team were named to bona-fide all-American teams, a new Sooner record.

The previous high at OU was four players in both 1952 and in '56.

Headed by halfback Joe Washington and linebacker Rod Shoate, who made everybody's team, the list includes:

Safety Randy Hughes (United Press International), offensive guard John Roush (UPI, Football Writers, Football News), tackle Leroy Selmon (Newspaper Enterprise Association), middle guard Dewey Selmon (Football News), split end Tinker Owens (NEA) and center Kyle Davis (Sporting News).

In addition, Washington was chosen Offensive Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Pigskin Club.

Those famous four who nabbed all-America honors in '52 were fullback Buck McPhail, halfback Billy Vessels, quarterback Eddie Crowder and center Tom Catlin.

From Oklahoma's 1956 National Championship squad, tackle Ed Gray, halfback Tommy McDonald, center Jerry Tubbs and guard Bill Krisher made all-America.

Eleven OU Players Chosen All-Big 8

Eleven members of Oklahoma's '74 National Champs were picked on either the Associated Press or United Press International All-Big Eight teams.

Joe Washington, the Sooners' all-American halfback, was chosen Offensive Player of the Year on both the AP and UPI teams while Rod Shoate, three-time all-American linebacker, was named the Defensive Player of the Year by both wire services.

Coach Barry Switzer was named Coach of the Year by both polls.

Here's the way it went for Oklahoma:

Associated Press — Washington, Tinker Owens, John Roush, Jerry Arnold, Shoate, Leroy Selmon, Dewey Selmon, Randy Hughes and Jimbo Elrod.

United Press International — Washington, Roush, Terry Webb, Arnold, Wayne Hoffman, Shoate, D. Selmon, L. Selmon, Elrod and Hughes.

1975 Player Profiles

(Numerically)

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

1 Saf. Zac Henderson

19, 6-1, 180, soph., Burkburnett, Tex.

You might say he did the impossible last year, moving right into the starting lineup as a freshman at a position that demands key decisions down after down. Freshman running backs you'll see on a major college team occasionally but not freshman safeties. Henderson was the third leading tackler in the secondary with 49 stops, 1 for a 5-yard loss. He intercepted 2 passes and broke up 6 others. Against Texas, he was the leading tackler in the secondary with 9, playing a key role in the Sooners' 16-13 victory. He played extremely well in OU's 28-14 win at Nebraska, making 8 tackles and intercepting David Humm's pass to kill a Cornhusker scoring threat in the fourth quarter. Henderson owns good speed, hands and his fierce tackling was what caught Coach Bobby Proctor's eye the most.

2 QB Dean Blevins

19, 6-0, 175, soph., Norman

Good athlete who owns the intelligence you want for a wishbone quarterback. Lettered as a freshman. He'll be tough to beat out after Steve Davis graduates. OU's coaches knew he was a fine Wishbone prospect when he played for Norman High School. Blevins missed most of his senior year at Norman with injuries but proved his durability by remaining healthy throughout his freshman campaign. He played reserve guard on OU's basketball team, scoring 58 points and grabbing 28 rebounds. He hit 10 points against Kansas State at Manhattan, his game high for the year. Blevins has the quickness and speed to be a good runner. He can throw well, too. His best game came against Kansas when he guided the Sooners 67 yards to a touchdown in the fourth quarter, capped by his 9-yard TD pass to Billy Brooks. He passed 42 yards to Brooks for a TD against Wake Forest. He rushed 20 times for 86 yards and completed 3 of 7 passes for 70 yards and two touchdowns.

3 Kicker Tony DiRienzo

21, 5-10, 187, sr., Ardmore

Brazilian place kicker who set a school record in '74 by kicking 39 extra points without a miss. He toed 6 field goals. His 37-yarder won the Texas game, 16-13, in the fourth quarter. He toed 22, 42 and 48-yarders against Missouri, a 33-yarder vs. Kansas and another 33-yarder against Oklahoma State. He kicked through a total of 57 points for the Sooners. His family is living in Sao Paulo, Brazil, where he was reared before moving to Ardmore during high school.

4 RHB Elvis Peacock

18, 6-1, 201, soph., Miami, Fla.

Big, strong and fast, Peacock could become one of Oklahoma's great backs before his career is over. He's done 9.4 in the 100. Lettered as a freshman, gaining 428 yards on 55 carries for a 7.7 average and scored 7 touchdowns. Rushed 14 times for 73 yards and scored twice against Utah State. Broke a 55-yard touchdown run against Wake Forest. J. D. Martin, OU's track coach who was sitting in the press box, clicked on his stop watch when Elvis took the pitch 5 yards behind the line and clocked the Miami, Fla. speedster in 6.8 seconds for 60 yards dressed in a full football uniform. In the Colorado game, Elvis swept left end for 42 yards and a TD that was called back when the official said his foot brushed the boundary line at the CU 20. He returned a punt 54 yards for a TD against Kansas State. Peacock has a running style all his own. His speed makes him dangerous on wide plays and he runs with power up the middle. He'll probably be the No. 1 right halfback now that Grant Burget has graduated.

5 QB Steve Davis

22, 5-11, 185, sr., Sallisaw

(see page 9)

7 Saf. Scott Hill

21, 5-11, 192, jr., Hurst, Tex.

Missed most of spring practice because of injury but he's expected to be ready for fall drills. He's a converted quarterback who played free safety last year, making 34 tackles, intercepting 3 passes and breaking up 4 more. He made the switch from offense to defense in the spring of '74. "He showed me how much of a competitor he was when we moved him," remembers Coach Barry Switzer. "He told us he would play anywhere, just so he got the opportunity to play." Hill will probably battle for starting duty with Mike Birks and Myron Shoate at strong safety. Hill intercepted a pass against Colorado, giving Oklahoma possession at its 38-yard line where the Sooners took it downfield to score. He made 5 big tackles against the Buffs. He made 7 tackles in OU's 28-10 victory over Iowa State. Lettered at quarterback in '73 when he rushed 30 times for 164 yards playing behind Steve Davis.

8 Saf. Myron Shoate

19, 5-11, 192, soph., Spiro

Running back switched to the secondary during spring practice. He looked impressive playing strong safety. He'll see plenty of action there. Owns good speed and athletic ability. Was listed No. 2 on the depth chart at the end of spring drills behind Mike Birks, a senior. Shoate rushed 24 times for 96 yards in '74, playing halfback. The brother of Rod Shoate, OU's 3-time all-America linebacker.

11 SE Tinker Owens

20, 5-11, 170, sr., Miami

(see page 11)

12 QB Joe McReynolds

19, 6-2, 195, soph., Purcell

Practiced well in the spring. Redshirted last year. Big, strong runner who'll get better at throwing the ball as he goes along. Will back Steve Davis this fall with Dean Blevins and Kerry Jackson. McReynolds lends good depth to the quarterback situation. Played on the varsity his freshman year. He rushed 6 times for 28 yards. In freshman games, he ran 58 times, gaining 74 yards and completed 13 of 41 passes for 298 yards and 2 touchdowns. Scored OU's final touchdown against Texas in '73. Highly recruited by major colleges, McReynolds played defensive end and quarterback for the Oklahoma prep squad in the '73 Oil Bowl game against Texas that features top high school players from both states.

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

14 QB Kerry Jackson

22, 5-11, 200, sr., Galveston, Tex. (Ball)

Another good quarterback on OU's roster. Good passer with quickness that helps his running. Completed 4 of 10 passes for 87 yards in '74. Completed 3 of 7 for 71 yards against Baylor, subbing for Steve Davis who was shaken up in the first half. He drilled a 43-yard completion to Tinker Owens to the Baylor 2 and hit Billy Brooks with a 26-yarder that would have been a TD if Brooks' foot had not been outside of the boundary line in the Baylor endzone. Played as a freshman in 1972, rushing 49 times for 308 yards and completing 11 passes for 144 more.

15 Saf. Mike Birks

21, 6-1, 195, sr., Tulsa (East Central)

The No. 1 strong safety when spring practice ended. He'll start there when fall drills begin. Totaled 13 tackles and one interception in '74 when he lettered playing safety. Good speed and hands and, most of all, he's experienced. Coaches like his size. He intercepted a pass against Utah State and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown.

16 RCB Terry Peters

19, 5-11, 172, soph., Pauls Valley

Brother of Tony Peters, OU's cornerback the last two seasons. Good prospect who finished spring practice as the No. 2 right cornerback behind Eric Van Camp. Good speed and quickness, he'll see action in '75. Practiced well during the spring. Lends good depth at right corner.

Glen Comeaux

Jim Culbreath

Bill Dalke

Steve Davis

Tony DiRienzo

Jim Dodds

Larry Duke

Jimbo Elrod

21 LCB Sidney Brown

20, 6-0, 183, jr., New Orleans, La.

Broke the starting lineup last fall in the fourth game against Texas when Eric Van Camp broke his collarbone and missed the rest of the season. Brown had broken his jaw in an earlier game and was playing with it wired shut. He was forced to feed himself those few weeks by sipping milk shakes and soup through a straw. He was the second leading tackler in the secondary with 49. He intercepted 4 passes and broke up 3 more. He totaled 5 tackles against Texas, 4 vs. Colorado. He intercepted an Iowa State pass in the Oklahoma endzone killing a touchdown threat. He made a key tackle in the Oklahoma State game by nailing Scott Burk for no gain on third down and nine, forcing the Cowboys to kick a field goal.

24 LHB Joe Washington

21, 5-10, 184, sr., Port Arthur, Tex.

(see page 12)

26 LCB Frank Rohr

19, 5-11, 177, soph., Tulsa (Rogers)

Practiced well in the spring and finished as the No. 2 left cornerback behind Sidney Brown. Rohr owns good speed and tackling ability. Redshirted last fall so he's been around long enough to know his assignments.

27 FS Jerry Reese

20, 6-3, 201, jr., New Orleans, La.

Good height, size and speed, he's probably the best looking physical specimen in the secondary. Played as a reserve in '74, totaling 17 tackles, intercepting 2 passes and breaking up another one. Will back Zac Henderson at free safety. Came to Oklahoma from St. Augustine High School in New Orleans along with Sidney Brown and Terry Sherman. Reese intercepted a pass, giving OU the ball at the Wake Forest 22 where the Sooners moved in to score. His second theft came against Colorado, halting a Buffalo scoring drive.

31 RCB Eric Van Camp

20, 6-0, 176, sr., Muskegon, Mich.

The No. 1 right cornerback who broke a collarbone in OU's 16-13 victory over Texas and missed the rest of the '74 season. Good player who lends experience to the secondary. Totaled 13 tackles before his injury, broke up one pass and recovered a fumble. His fumble recovery at the Texas 35-yard line after Jimbo Elrod smashed the ball loose from Raymond Clayborn put OU in good field position to score early in the game. The Sooners fumbled it right back instead. Van Camp is another converted running back with good speed, savvy and tackling ability. He played behind Clyde Powers in '73, totaling 17 tackles.

32 RHB Horace Ivory

21, 5-10, 193, jr., Fort Worth, Texas

Redshirted last year when his leg needed more time to heal following surgery for a calcium deposit in the spring of '74. Great moves and running ability. Will battle Elvis Peacock for the No. 1 right halfback position. Suffered another leg injury early in spring practice but came back to sparkle before spring drills were over. Great balance. He jumps around with the ball, looking for holes and owns the speed to get through them. Transferred to Oklahoma from Navarro, Tex. Junior College at mid-term in '74. He played at Navarro for Coach Don Duncan who's OU's receiver coach these days.

38 LB Jamie Thomas

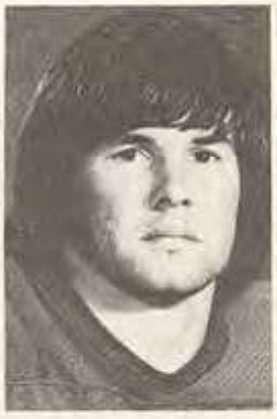
21, 6-1, 215, sr., Ada

Converted fullback who is the only experienced linebacker on the OU roster. He knows what to do and when to do it. Played behind Rod Shoate and Gary Gibbs last year, totaling 24 tackles, 2 of them for 9 yards in losses. He intercepted one pass. Owns the size, speed and quickness necessary. In '73, Thomas played behind Shoate and David Smith, making 5 tackles. He played fullback on Ada's state championship team in 1970 that finished 13-0.

Chez Evans

Calvin Harris

Zac Henderson



Scott Hill

Horace Ivory

Kerry Jackson

Ralph Kulbeth

Jim Littrell

40 LB Bill Dalke

(doll-key)

20, 5-11, 215, soph., Hobart

Redshirt who attracted plenty of attention during spring practice, enough that he was listed No. 1 at one of OU's two linebacker positions in the end. Dalke, and Obie Moore, another redshirt listed No. 1, were probably the most consistent performers during the spring. Dalke tackles well, he's strong and intelligent. He'll be especially good playing against plays that come right at him and he's expected to be better-than-average at covering outside running plays.

42 FB Jimmy Littrell

(lit-TRELL)

21, 5-11, 201, sr., Muskogee

Moved into the No. 1 fullback spot before the '74 season began when Waymon Clark was dismissed from the team for disciplinary reasons. The coaching staff knew there would be little dropoff. Littrell had been impressive as a sophomore. He was OU's second leading rusher last year with 837 yards on 124 carries, an average of 6.7. Littrell is physically designed to play fullback in the wishbone formation. He's big, extremely quick, a fine blocker and owns the speed to break the long run. A fullback with breakaway speed creates another problem for enemy defenses. He bolted for 45 yards and a touchdown against Utah State when the defense was concentrating on OU's halfbacks. He threw the key block to spring Steve Davis for a 22-yard touchdown run in the Texas game that gave OU a 6-0 lead. He carried 13 times for 66 yards against the Longhorns. Against Missouri, Littrell was the game's leading rusher with 155 yards on 18 carries. With Kansas' defense paying much attention to OU's wide game, Littrell smashed the middle 12 times for 70 yards. And against Nebraska, he ran up main street for 147 yards on 26 carries, much of his yardage coming at crucial times. His efforts diverted the attention of Nebraska's defense allowing Davis, Joe Washington, Grant Burget and Elvis Peacock more freedom.

With Oklahoma harboring a scant 16-13 lead over Oklahoma State, Littrell exploded up the middle for 34 yards and a first down at the Cowboy 1-yard line. The Sooners scored on the next play, providing a more comfortable lead in a tight ball game. Jimmy led all rushers that day with 112 yards on 16 carries.

He was OU's punter in '73, averaging 39.5 yards. He kicked one 72 yards to pin Texas back on its 10-yard line after the Longhorns had OU pinned on its 18 and the Sooners nursing a slim, 7-3 lead.

46 FB Calvin Harris

20, 6-1, 222, soph., Conroe, Tex.

Played behind Jim Littrell last fall. Rushed 26 times for 141 yards and scored 3 touchdowns. Big, powerful runner who improves in quickness all the time. Scored OU's fifth touchdown on a 3-yard burst against Utah State. Rushed 4 times for 61 yards against Kansas State and scored twice on runs of 7 and 32.

48 LB Russ Williamson

19, 6-3, 211, soph., Dallas, Tex. (Skyline)

Physically, he's the best OU linebacker prospect. His height is impressive and he can run and tackle well. A redshirt, he was slowed by a knee injury during spring practice. He will be in the thick of the battle for a starting berth. And OU's coaches feel like he will get better as the season progresses. He was all-district and all-Dallas, playing linebacker and end at Dallas Skyline High School in '72.

49 LB Marty Brecht

21, 6-1, 213, jr., Edmond

Leading tackler on OU's specialty teams last year (punts and kickoffs). Totaled 24 tackles, 1 for a 6-yard loss and recovered 2 fumbles. Injured his knee in the final game against Oklahoma State and underwent surgery. He's expected back for fall practice in good health. Will be in the thick of the battle for one of those two linebacker positions.

54 DE Jimbo Elrod

21, 6-0, 210, sr., Tulsa (East Central)

(see page 15)

55 C Dennis Buchanan

22, 6-2, 230, sr., Oklahoma City

(Southeast)

Will be the No. 1 center in '75. Lettered in '73 and redshirted last year so OU would have another quality center in '75 after Kyle Davis used his eligibility. Practiced well in the spring. Great competitor and one of the best one-on-one blockers in the line. "We feel like he will be the leader we need," says Gene Hochevar, assistant coach. "You need somebody up there with experience and somebody the other players look to for leadership. Dennis is that kind of guy."

56 MG Glen Comeaux

(CO-mo)

21, 6-0, 214, sr., Port Arthur, Tex.

(Lincoln)

Will back Dewey Selmon at middle guard. Played in high school with Joe Washington and Anthony Bryant, Oklahoma's halfback and defensive tackle. Washington's father, Joe Sr., was the coach. Comeaux, quick and fast, broke through to make 24 tackles last year, 3 of them for 6 yards in losses. Made 9 tackles in the Wake Forest game, one for a 3-yard loss. Tackled Colorado ball carriers 7 times and twice nailed them behind the line.

57 LB Obie Moore

20, 6-0, 212, soph., Austin, Tex.

(Reagan)

Redshirted last year. Practiced well in the spring but injured his knee and underwent surgery. He's expected to return in good shape this fall. Listed No. 1 at linebacker along with Bill Dalke, another redshirt sophomore, when spring practice ended. Moore lettered as a freshman. Will be a good tackler against the running game and his mobility will improve with time, allowing him to be more effective against the pass. "He only gives us 110 percent on the field," cracks Coach Larry Lacewell about Moore's eagerness to please. He made 14 tackles playing reserve linebacker his freshman season. Was highly recruited when he played for Austin Reagan High. He was voted Young Texan of the Year in '72, an Optimist award and made honorable mention on Sunkist's Prep all-America team.

58 C Jeff Bodin

(bo-DEEN)

21, 6-3, 227, sr., Edmond

Will back Dennis Buchanan at center. Reported for fall practice 40 pounds heavier one year ago and impressed the coaching staff with his new size and hustle. "He's gonna play a lot this year," says Coach Gene Hochevar of the offensive line. A good blocker and intelligent, Bodin played guard during his first years at Oklahoma.

60 OG Jaime Melendez

19, 6-1, 250, soph., Lawton

Redshirt and a blocker with plenty of athletic ability. Owns good speed (4.8 in the 40). Can play guard or tackle in the offensive line. He was the No. 1 left guard at the end of spring practice. Lettered as a freshman. Has good explosion off of the line. Recovered Scott Hill's fumble in the Texas endzone for a touchdown his freshman year. If it turns out that he plays left guard, and Chez Evans starts at left tackle, OU will have two of its best athletes lined up side by side.

65 OG Larry Duke

21, 6-0, 243, sr., Borger, Tex.

Much-traveled offensive guard who was listed No. 2 on the depth chart when spring practice ended. Played nose guard on defense, before he was moved to the offense last fall. Good size and he owns experience. He probably will alternate with Jaime Melendez at left guard.

69 OT Ralph Kulbeth

20, 6-5, 276, jr., Marlow

Stationed at right tackle behind Mike Vaughan in the offensive line. Good physical qualifications. Good one-on-one blocker who played center last year and was moved to tackle in spring practice. Size and ability means he's booked for plenty of action in '75.

71 DT Anthony Bryant

20, 6-3, 245, jr., Port Arthur, Tex.

Will be the starting right tackle on defense if his operated knee responds to off-season surgery. It's expected to. Totaled 61 tackles, 4 for 10 yards in losses last year. Became a starter in OU's second game with Utah State in '74. The coaches decided to move Dewey Selmon from tackle to middle guard, to switch Leroy Selmon over to left tackle where Dewey was playing and use Bryant at right tackle to insert more physique up front. This combination proved effective. Utah State was allowed good field position only twice in the game as Bryant totaled 4 tackles, two for losses playing less than half of the game. He played well in OU's 16-13 win over Texas, totaling 8 tackles. He made 7 stops against Colorado, one for a 4-yard loss. He tackled Iowa State runners 16 times. OU's coaches believe the Sooners can be good up front if Bryant's knee heals. That would allow them to use Richard Murray, another top-flight lineman, at any of the three down positions as an alternate, lending important depth up there.

72 OG Jim Dodds

20, 6-4, 262, jr., Albuquerque, N.M. (Highland)

Letterman who was stationed at No. 2 right guard when spring practice ended. Good blocker with plenty of size. Former star at Highland High School in Albuquerque, the same school where Tommy McDonald, OU's all American halfback of the 1950s played. Dodds could play either guard or tackle.

75 OT Chez Evans

19, 6-2, 265, jr., Seminole

Will play at left guard or left tackle in the offensive line. Runs the 40 in 5.0, excellent for his size. Fine athlete who has played both defense and offense since his arrival here. Extremely mobile. Played fullback at Seminole High School. It looks like the coaching staff has finally decided to leave him with the offense. He's a two-year letterman. Played offense in OU's 28-11 victory over Baylor then was moved to defense against Utah State and Wake Forest. He played left tackle behind Leroy Selmon. He was moved back to right tackle on offense in the Texas game where he stayed the rest of the season.

76 DT Richard Murray

18, 6-2, 245, soph., Greenville, Tex.

Could become one of Oklahoma's better linemen before his career ends. Big, strong and fast, his presence encourages the Sooner defensive coaches. They can play him at either tackle spot or at middle guard — he's worked at all of those positions. Was listed No. 2 at left tackle behind Leroy Selmon at the end of spring practice. Lettered as a freshman playing behind Leroy at left tackle. When a freshman sees enough action to letter in OU's interior line, you know he's blue chip. Murray totaled 18 tackles, 1 for a 6-yard loss and he recovered one fumble.

Jamie Thomas Keith Thomas Eric Van Camp Mike Vaughan

George Walrond

Joe Washington

Terry Webb

78 OT Leo Martin

20, 6-2, 243, jr., Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Lettered playing left tackle on offense behind Jerry Arnold. Saw action in every game but the opener with Baylor. Improved as the season progressed. Good blocker with size and quickness. Will probably remain at left tackle this fall. Listed No. 2 behind Chez Evans when spring practice was over.

79 OT Mike Vaughan

20, 6-5, 282, jr., Ada

Will be one of the finest offensive linemen in Sooner history. Two-year letterman who obliterates enemy linemen with his size, quickness and speed. Nicknamed "USS Vaughan" by the coaching staff because of his great size, he was a leading figure in OU's offensive success last year. "He has size, strength, great balance and agility and there isn't much else you look for in a blocker," says Coach Gene Hochevar of the offensive line. Vaughan graded over 80 percent in every game film, the most consistent score recorded by a Sooner lineman in '74. He played exceptionally well in the Colorado and Nebraska games. Although Oklahoma doesn't make a living off of the passing game, Vaughan is an excellent pass protector. On straight ahead plays OU runs over his blocks frequently because he's consistent at taking out the man opposite him.

81 TE Keith Thomas

20, 6-3, 211, jr., Tomball, Tex.

Tried to practice at tight end during spring drills but his operated knee wasn't clicking right. Then he suffered another knee injury and underwent surgery again. If he gets well — and he's expected to since his second operation was for cartilage damage, the least serious — the coaches still want to see how he plays tight end. That's a position not completely settled at the moment and an important one. Thomas was formerly a defensive safety. He transferred to OU from Navarro, Tex. Junior College at mid-term in '74.

82 SE Billy Brooks

21, 6-3, 202, sr., Austin, Tex.

The other half of Oklahoma's split receiver corps along with Tinker Owens. They'll alternate in '75 as in the past. Brooks has the best physical tools of all Sooner receivers. He's tall, well proportioned and fast. He runs with a smooth stride and good body lean.

"He reminds me of Paul Warfield," said Paul Hornung, former Notre Dame and Green Bay Packer star who handled a delayed telecast of the OU-Missouri game last year. "Keep your eye on him. He'll be great in the pros."

Brooks is the "Big Play" man on offense. He won the Texas game with a 40-yard touchdown run on the end-around, a nifty jaunt that caught the Longhorns flatfooted. He ran a clever route, got behind Kansas' secondary and caught Steve Davis' long pass on a 72-yard TD play. Call it a big play because the Sooners were trailing the Jayhawks, 7-0, and making no progress against KU's stubborn defense. As a junior, Brooks broke open the Iowa State game by wrestling Davis' long pass away from a Cyclone defender for a TD on a 68-yard play. OU was trailing 13-17 at the time. With the Sooners leading only 16-3 at Missouri that year, Brooks broke the game apart when he grabbed a short pass from Davis and outran the Tiger secondary on a 63-yard scoring jaunt. Last year, Brooks caught a 42-yard scoring pass from Dean Blevins in OU's 63-0 victory against Wake Forest and a 9-yarder from Blevins for another TD against Kansas. He totaled 7 catches for 176 yards and 3 touchdowns for this year.

88 DE Duane Baccus

20, 6-5, 222, jr., Brownfield, Tex.

Big, strong defensive end who played extremely well in OU's 44-13 victory over Oklahoma State. He was playing behind Jimbo Elrod at right end until the OSU game. Ron Waters, the regular left end, was injured so the coaches decided to switch Baccus over there in the third quarter to add a big, physical look at that position. Duane responded by making tackle after tackle, holding the Cowboys' rushing game in check for the most part. Duane, the brother of Gary, OU's all-Big Eight defensive end of '72 and '73, underwent knee surgery during the winter months following the '74 season and missed spring practice. He will battle Mike Phillips for starting duty at left end this fall. Baccus totaled 16 tackles in '74, 3 for 16 yards in losses. He intercepted one pass and recovered two fumbles.

89 DE Mike Phillips

20, 6-1, 202, jr., Galveston, Tex.

(Ball)

Letterman who saw considerable action in '74 and will do the same

this fall. Totaled 22 tackles last year, 3 for 32 yards in losses. He's quick and fast. Backed Ron Waters at left end last fall and will play that position with Duane Baccus this year. He practiced well during the spring. Baccus missed spring drills to let his operated knee heal so Phillips might enjoy a slight advantage when fall practice begins.

91 MG Dewey Selmon

21, 6-1, 257, sr., Eufaula

(see page 17)

93 DT Leroy Selmon

20, 6-2, 256, sr., Eufaula

(see page 18)

98 MG George Walrond

19, 5-11, 227, jr., Lake Charles, La.

Played well early last fall at middle guard before getting hurt. Tried at linebacker during spring practice but he was moved back to middle guard. He showed more promise during the spring than ever. Good speed and quickness. Walrond and Glen Comeaux will back Dewey Selmon.

OU Home Games Sellouts for 3rd Straight Year

All of Oklahoma's home 1974 football games were sellouts, marking the third straight year the Sooners performed before full houses at Owen Field.

The crowd of 62,619 that watched OU beat Oklahoma State, 44-13, was the third largest in Owen Field history and the 62,600 to view the Sooners' 37-0 victory over Missouri was the fourth biggest.

Oklahoma averaged 62,218 at home, a new record. The old best of 62,057 was established in 1972.

THE TOP TEN AT OWEN FIELD

1. Notre Dame	1957	63,170
2. Nebraska	1971	62,884
3. Oklahoma State	1974	62,619
4. Missouri	1974	62,600
5. Colorado	1973	62,580
6. Southern Cal	1964	62,579
7. Utah State	1972	62,546
8. Colorado	1971	62,501
9. Army	1959	62,472
10. Oklahoma State	1972	62,363

The only Oklahoma game, both at home and away, not classified as a sellout in '74 was the Sooners' 45-14 victory at Kansas before a crowd of 42,474.

Whoom! Leroy Selmon puts the stop on a Baylor runner. OU's all-America tackle totaled 15 tackles against the Bears, two for 10 yards in losses as the Sooners won their opener, 28-11.

The Coaching Staff

Barry Switzer
Head Coach

PERIOD AT OKLAHOMA—appointed head coach Feb. 1, 1973, when Chuck Fairbanks left to become general manager and head coach of the New England Patriots. In his nine seasons at Oklahoma, Switzer also served as assistant head coach three years as well as offensive coordinator for six seasons. He came from Arkansas where he coached the offensive ends and served on Frank Broyles' staff six seasons.

RESPONSIBILITY—head football coach.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE — High School: none. Collegiate: six years at Arkansas under Broyles as follows: 1960 freshman line, 1961 "B" team, 1962-63 "B" team and scout, 1964-65 coached offensive ends. Handled Oklahoma's offensive line in 1966.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE—High School: played guard and linebacker 1952-53-54 for Coach Harry Denson at Crossett, Ark. Collegiate: 1957-58-59 played center and linebacker at Arkansas for Coach Jack Mitchell first year, for Coach Frank Broyles last two. Captained Arkansas' 1959 team, Southwest Conference champions and Gator Bowl Champions.

PERSONAL INFO—born Oct. 5, 1937 at Crossett, Ark. Graduated 1955 from Crossett, Ark. high school. Graduated 1959 from Arkansas with B.A. in business administration. Married July 14, 1963 to Kay McCollum of Stuttgart, Ark. and University of Arkansas. Children: Greg born Oct. 5, 1968; Kathy, Sept. 6, 1969, and Doug, Sept. 27, 1972. Hobbies: hunting, fishing, golf. Church: Baptist. Nationality: German.

SERVICE DATA — Army one year, 1961.

MISCELLANEOUS — Preseason football experts picked Oklahoma the nation's No. 1 team for 1974 and with the added pressure of probation the Sooners finished out the year the same way, No. 1. Barry Switzer's Sooners cruised through the season unbeaten, 11-0, enroute to the national championship and a third straight Big Eight conference title.

Winning has become habit forming for Oklahoma under the youthful Switzer. Since taking over the Sooner reins his team has yet to taste defeat while running up a 21-0-1 record.

The Sooners of '74 were much like his first team of 1973, they wiped out everything in sight. Oklahoma led the nation in rushing (438.8 average), total offense (507.7 average) and scoring (43.0).

The likeable 37-year-old OU head man was named Coach of the Year in both wire service polls and claimed national honors from Walter Camp, Football News, Washington Pigskin Club and the Sporting News.

Although prospects for new head coach Switzer's 1973 Sooners were dimmed by problems of probation, injuries and illnesses, Oklahoma finished the season with a 10-0-1 record, OU's first unbeaten season since 1956. Switzer's team ranked second nationally in UPI's final poll and third in the AP poll. Oklahoma obliterated everything in sight in Big Eight conference play, capturing its second straight league title with a 7-0 record in the nation's toughest football conference.

Switzer was named NCAA District 6 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association. He was selected National Coach of the Year by Sporting News and by Universal Sports of Toronto, Canada.

With Switzer as offense coach, his forces led the country in rushing (472.4 yards a game), total offense (566.5) and scoring (44.9 points) in 1971 (the rushing and total offense averages were NCAA records) and finished first in rushing (368.8) and second in total offense (477.7) in '72. The '71 OU offense might have been the most awesome in the history of the game.

OU's Wishbone-T flashed to four new NCAA records and nine Big Eight marks as the Sooners zipped to an 11-1 record with a 40-22 victory over Auburn in the Sugar Bowl in 1971 and another 11-1 record with a 14-0 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl in 1972. Switzer's offenses at Oklahoma have always been punishing.

Here's how the Sooners fared in the rugged Big Eight conference offensively while Switzer was in charge of that department:

Total offense — First in 1967, 1971 and 1972, second in both '68 and '69.

Rushing—First in '67, '69, '71 and '72. Third in '68.

Scoring—First in '67 and '71, second in '68 and '72 and third in '69.

Switzer, who came to Oklahoma in 1966 with Jim Mackenzie, has coached every aspect of football, both offensively and defensively since his decision to enter the profession in 1960 as freshman line coach of the Razorbacks.

At Oklahoma he developed tailback Steve Owens, the 1969 Heisman Trophy winner and all-Americans Jack Mildren (quarterback 1971), Greg Pruitt (halfback '71 and '72 who finished third in the Heisman balloting as a junior and second in his senior campaign) and halfback Joe Washington, OU senior who finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1974.

Switzer has coached in 11 bowl games.

Larry Lacewell Asst. Head Coach, Defense Coach

PERIOD AT OKLAHOMA—His eighth season after coaching one-year stints at Wichita State and Iowa State. Came to Oklahoma first in 1966 for one season. Since 1970 when Lacewell became defensive coordinator the cry of DEFENSE has rung clear. Lacewell, a veteran of 15 years in coaching, was instrumental in switching the OU defense to the 5-2. As a result the defense has become devastating. Oklahoma has not permitted a Big Eight opponent more than two touchdowns a game the past three seasons, an unusual statistic since it plays in the toughest conference in the nation. Some thought the 1972 defense that permitted opponents only 11 touchdowns in 12 games and blanked Texas and Penn State, was OU's best ever. But Lacewell's '73 aggregation might have been better. The '74 bunch wasn't bad. They led the Big Eight in scoring defense (8.4), rushing defense (131.0), total defense (231.5) and were fourth in pass defense (106.0). Three opponents were shut out and no team was able to score more than 14 points.

RESPONSIBILITY—Assistant head coach and defense coach.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE — High School: 1952-53-54 at Fordyce, Ark. where he played halfback for coach Red Parwer. All state halfback 1954. Captain 1954. Lettered in five sports as a Fordyce, Ark. high school senior, in football (all-state halfback), basketball (all-district guard), track (placed in state meet low hurdles), swimming (placed third in state meet diving) and tennis (fourth in singles in state tournament). Collegiate: 1955-56-57-58 played halfback at Arkansas A&M for Coaches Jim Benton and Convoy Leslie. His team won the Arkansas Intercollegiate conference championship all four years and Lacewell was all-conference halfback as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL INFO — born Feb. 12, 1937 at Fordyce, Ark. Graduated 1955 from Fordyce, Ark. high school. Graduated Jan. 1959 from Arkansas A&M with B.S. in physical education. Graduated from Alabama in 1960 with M.A. in physical education. Married Aug. 17, 1968 to Chris Cross of Bloomfield, Ind. Children: son, Bryant Layne. Hobby: golf. Church: Methodist.

MISCELLANEOUS — Helped prepare Alabama for 1959 Liberty Bowl. Helped Coach Boyd Converse prepare the Kilgore, Tex. Junior college team that won the 1965 Shrimp Bowl.

In 1972 OU all-America tackle Derland Moore was voted National Lineman of the Week following OU's 27-0 victory over Texas after blocking a punt that middle guard Lucious Selmon recovered in the endzone for a touchdown and recovering another for a TD himself. Linebacker Rod Shoate nabbed the same honor following Oklahoma's 20-6 victory over Iowa State after making 21 tackles against the Cyclones.

Selmon was a consensus All-American in 1973, Chevrolet ABC-TV Defensive Player of the Year, Outstanding Defensive Player in the Hula Bowl, received Miami Touchdown Club's Fame Award among other honors. Shoate made AP and Kodak All-Americans as a junior.

Oklahoma's 1973 defense showed special muscle against Miami when a strong second-half rally overcame a 20-7 deficit and provided a 24-20 OU victory. The defense held Miami to minus 38 yards rushing and only three first downs after intermission. In Oklahoma's 27-0 victory over Nebraska, the Cornhuskers got past the 50-yard line only once during the game and on that play a jarring tackle caused a fumble that the Sooners recovered. OU led the Big Eight conference in defense against scoring (allowing 12.1 points a game), total defense (226.5 yards a game) and rushing defense (106 yards).

Perhaps the highlight of the 1974 season came in the second half against Nebraska in Lincoln. The Cornhuskers were leading, 14-7 in the third quarter. The Sooners promptly fumbled the kickoff, giving Nebraska the ball again at the 15-yard line. Three plays could gain only nine yards and then the Cornhuskers missed on the field goal attempt. After the defensive stand the Sooners came on to win, 28-14 and wrap up the league championship.

Galen Hall
Offense Coach

PERIOD AT OKLAHOMA—Assumed his new position when Barry Switzer replaced Chuck Fairbanks, Feb. 1, 1973. Possesses one of the most inventive offensive minds in football. Served as receiver coach at Oklahoma for seven years after joining the staff in 1966. Came from West Virginia where he coached the backs and ends.

RESPONSIBILITY—coaching pass receivers and working with backs.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE — High School: none. Collegiate: 1964-65 coached offensive backfield and ends at West Virginia under Head Coach Gene Corum.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE — High School: 1955-56-57 quarterbacked Williamsburg, Pa. All-Pennsylvania prep quarterback 1957. Also lettered 4 years in basketball and 4 in baseball. Collegiate: played 1959-60-61 for Coach Rip Engle at Penn State, starting at quarterback last two years. Hall played in three bowl games, all won by his team. As a sophomore, he passed 19 yards off a fake field goal formation for the lone touchdown of Penn State's 7-0 victory over Alabama in the 1959 Liberty Bowl. As a junior, he quarterbacked Penn State's 42-19 triumph over Oregon in the 1960 Liberty Bowl. As a senior he threw three touchdown passes in the 1961 Gator Bowl during Penn State's 30-15 romp over Georgia Tech and was voted the outstanding player. Professional: 1962 quarterback with Washington Redskins, 1963 quarterback with New York Jets.

PERSONAL INFO—born Aug. 14, 1940 at Altoona, Pa. Graduated 1958 from Williamsburg, Pa. high school. Graduated 1962 with B.S. in physical education from Penn State. Married Dec. 22, 1962 to Sarah Jean Ickes of Williamsburg, Pa. Children: Richard Alan and Kelly Jo. Hobby: golf. Nationality: English. Church: Lutheran.

MISCELLANEOUS — Hall's Sooner wishbone is the nation's finest. OU led the nation in rushing, total offense and scoring last year using the triple option. This features the bread and butter running plays, but when enemy defenses stack the line of scrimmage Hall is always ready with the "trick play."

An example came in last year's Texas game. The Sooners were trailing, 13-7 in the fourth quarter. Hopes for an undefeated season were on the line as OU faced a third down and 7 and needed a big play. Hall called for the end-around or reverse. With the flow of the play headed left, Billy Brooks swooped right and took the pitch from quarterback Steve Davis. Texas was caught moving the other way. Brooks turned the end and rambled 40 yards for the touchdown to tie the score.

Coach Hall is given credit for transforming Davis from an unknown redshirt into the starting signal caller. Before his career is finished Davis could be one of the greats in Sooner history.

In 1973 against Colorado, Davis pitched to halfback Joe Washington who faked the end run then passed back to Davis who passed to tight end Wayne Hoffman downfield. The play covered 37 yards.

Hall's 1973 offense led the Big Eight conference in rushing (361.4 yards average), total offense (453.3) and scoring (36.4 points). Halfback Joe Washington was the league's leading rusher with an average of 106.6 yards and both Washington and fullback Waymon Clark rushed for over a thousand yards.

Warren Harper Linebackers

choice; Gary Baccus, moved to defensive end after he made Football News' sophomore All-America team as a linebacker in 1970; Steve Casteel, chosen sophomore defensive player of the year in the Big Eight in 1968 by the Associated Press.

Gene Hochevar
Offensive Line

PERIOD AT OKLAHOMA — Joined Sooner staff June 1, 1969, from Englewood, Colo., high school. Hochevar has been in charge of the offensive line for two years. Before that he assisted Coach Bill Michael in the same area.

Snyder Joins Sooner Broadcast Network

John Snyder, sports director at KWTV in Oklahoma City, joins Mike Treps in Oklahoma's broadcast lineup this fall.

Snyder, 27 years old, will handle the color and Treps will do play-by-play for the third straight year over the Sooner Network.

Coach Barry Switzer will host two television shows this fall. His hour-long weekly playback will be done at KTUL-TV in Tulsa, with sportscaster Chris Lincoln serving as Barry's straight man.

And the 30-minute Barry Switzer show will be aired over WKY-TV in Oklahoma City. Howard Neumann, Vice President at the Lowe-Runkle advertising agency, will continue to emcee that one. Neumann begins season No. 22 as straight man for an Oklahoma head coach. He began emceeing the Bud Wilkinson Show, then did the same with Gomer Jones, Jim Mackenzie and Chuck Fairbanks.

Treps serves as media information director for the University of Oklahoma. He used to narrate the OU football playback in 1967-8-9, and handled Nebraska's playbacks from '63-'66.

Larry Lacewell, OU's colorful assistant head coach, will host a weekly prediction show over KTUL each week prior to ABC's game of the week.

Snyder is a graduate of Bowling Green University. He was sports director for WLIO in Lima, Ohio, in 1971 and in '72 before moving to Oklahoma City. He became sports director at KWTV in '74 after serving one year as sports announcer.
